New Germany Canada Day

In 1951, almost 60 years ago, the New Germany Volunteer Fire Department held a Dominion Day Garden Party with a country store, chocolate wheel, and bingo. There were suppers, a parade with 85 entries and an evening band concert. According to a report in the Bridgewater Bulletin the garden party was "A Great Success" and over $600.00 was raised.

In 1982 Dominion Day was renamed by the Canadian government to Canada Day and in that year the New Germany Day committee organized a parade, garden party and other special events to celebrate July 1st. In the early 80's profits from the New Germany Day celebrations went toward community projects such as the newly opened Rosedale Home and the Legion fire pond.

By 1990 New Germany Canada Day celebrations had attracted the attention of then editor of the Bridgewater Bulletin, Jim Newell. In his editorial of July 11th entitled "Applause" he said that "the people who live there (New Germany) continue to prove they understand the meaning of community." Based on what he saw when he attended the Canada Day celebrations that year, he praised the crowds, the fireworks and the cooperation of community organizations. His conclusion was "New Germany and the people who live there (are) positive examples of good community life."

In 2010 the New Germany Canada Day committee is again working to present a community festival on July 1st. There have been years that the community did not come together in celebration on either Dominion Day or Canada Day but we have had a party every year since 1986, 25 years and counting.

Swimming Lessons on Lake William

Children and adults have been learning to swim in the New Germany area for almost fifty years. The New Germany Red Cross first offered lessons at the foot of the New Germany Lake. By the early seventies the lessons moved to the Baptist Picnic Grounds on Lake William. Enrollment fluctuated over the years from just under two hundred to fewer than fifty. With changes to the Red Cross provincial structure control of the Red Cross lessons was passed over to the Lunenburg Municipal Recreation Department. Even with the reduced numbers it is reassuring to know that boys and girls of all ages are learning to swim and be safe around the water.

Over the years the Red Cross organized program employed many instructors who had been swimmers in the program. Having local swimmers teaching programs the Red Cross knew their experience on the waterfront would help them provide a welcoming atmosphere for new swimmers. During the eighties the program ranged from one instructor to as many as four to provide instructional time for those enrolled.

The Municipality has been a part of the Lake William Swim Program for many years. Traditionally classes have been offered for all ages, preschools to seniors for the first two weeks of July! For 2010, classes will run from July 5 to the 16, Monday to Friday. If there is sufficient interest, we can return for another week of swimming lessons August 16 – 20.

There will be a couple familiar faces this summer – Kelsey Murphy is now our Aquatic Manager; Steven Rodenhizer is a returning instructor; Jasmine Ali and Rebecca Bell are two new instructors. In Red Cross Swim Kids, children learn about water safety and swimming skills. It is sure to be a great time for everyone involved. Wonder who will get the pie in the face this year?

For information or to register for the Lake William Swim Program, call Lunenburg Municipal Recreation's summer office at 530-3285 or register online at www.modl.ca

Progress Update New Germany Collaborative Practice

Dear Resident,

It has been a very busy and exciting year at the New Germany and Area Medical Centre.

Last June, Nurse Practitioner Rob Snelling starting working at the centre. That was followed by the successful recruitment of Dr. Kory Jollymore. He started seeing patients in September. Together they are now seeing more than 1400 patients from the New Germany area. These are mostly patients who didn't have a doctor or other health care provider.

Mr. Snelling and Dr. Jollymore appreciate the warm welcome they have received from the community. They plan to continue to grow and expand their practice over the next few months. They are seeing a few new patients every week, but this takes time. The first few appointments with a new patient take longer because they need to get to know you and understand as much about your health as possible.

There are now about 250 people on a waiting list. They are being added to the practice in the order they contacted the Medical Centre. We are hopeful that these patients will all be added by early Fall. No new names will be added to the waiting list until then. This is necessary to ensure a balanced approach between taking as many patients as possible and making sure existing patients have good access. We don't want to create really long wait times for patients who expect and deserve to be able to get an appointment when they need it.

In the meantime, we will continue to work together and with the community to bring other health services to the Medical Centre. We appreciate your support and patience as we work to improve access to care and respond to the health needs of the community.

Director, Primary Health Care

New Germany Garden Club

The New Germany Garden Club continues to meet monthly at the New Germany Community Centre. Now that we are entering the height of gardening season there will probably be some garden tours rather than indoor meetings.

The Garden Club unveiled the Welcome to New Germany sign last October. Did you see the display of tulips and daffodils blooming this spring? We would like to add a planter or two as well and would appreciate help with that project. Please contact Greg Selig if you would like to build a sign planter.

We recently had a plant sale at the New Germany Farmers' Market (thanks for everyone's support). At our May meeting Sandra Amos of Maple Grove Greenhouses showed us some of this season's new flowering plants. Our other neighbourhood projects include a garden clean up at the New Germany & Area Medical Centre and placing a community planter at each of the New Germany Volunteer Fire Department, New Germany Community Centre and Barry's Freshmart. John Parnell and Bruce Penny did the heavy lifting moving these concrete containers in place. Garden Club members will be filling them with flowers and tending them during the summer season.

We will again be selling bulbs; tulips, daffodils, and we are adding crocus and garlic this year. Please order with any garden club member or watch for the bulbs at the Farmers' Market. Anyone who is interested in joining the Garden Club is welcome. Generally we meet the fourth Wednesday of each month but check at the Community Centre for more information.

South Shore Public Libraries

The new Mobile Library is on the road, promoting the South Shore Public Libraries' mission to read, discover, learn and share to people of all ages. Library cards are free, and are available to everyone living in Lunenburg and Queens Counties. Visitors to the area are welcome to join too.

The Mobile Library stops weekly in 6 communities and visits an additional 12 communities every three weeks throughout Lunenburg and Queens Counties.

The Mobile Library carries approximately 5,000 books, magazines, DVDs and audiobooks. The public also has access to a regional collection of 92,806 items and to the collections of other libraries in the province and in the country via Interlibrary Loan as well as thousands of e-resources through the Library's website, southshorepubliclibraries.ca. In 2008/09, 48,430 materials were borrowed from the Mobile Library. That's an approximate value of $1.2 million.

Replacing a mobile takes approximately two years, from planning and approval from the Library Board to receiving the finished product and loading of the vehicle. Staff drew up specifications and tender documents in February 2008. The tender was awarded in June 2008 for the supply of the vehicle which arrived in Silver's lot in February/March 2009. The retrofitting began in late May 2009. Tri-Star received the vehicle in August to prepare the remaining components and the shelving. SSPL took final delivery of the vehicle on March 25, 2010. The new vehicle, a 2010 International was loaded and on the road for March 30, when our 1995 Mobile was gracefully retired.

RUNNING – tips and general information

RUNNERS AND MOTORISTS – SHARING THE ROADS

We are beginning to see more runners/joggers on the roads in our community. This means that motorists have to share the roads with those who are out on foot. To make this a safer and more enjoyable experience for both groups of people here are a few things to keep in mind:

- Runners should always wear reflective clothing if they are running in the dark.
- The shoulder of the road is not always even and sometimes the gravel is too loose for runners to get good footing, which is why you might see runners on the pavement when there appears to be ample room on the side of the road. Therefore, if you see a runner on the edge of the pavement and there is no traffic coming in the opposite direction, they always appreciate being given some extra room when it is possible to give it. If drivers are unable to give the extra space, runners need to step to the shoulder until they pass. Cooperation from both groups is crucial in keeping everyone safe!
- Occasionally runners will be seen using the wrong side of the road. This is not because they do not know better! Those who are training for long running events will run 40 or more kms a week! The sides of our roads are slopped to allow for drainage. Running on a slant for that many kms will cause injuries to a runner, such as stress fractures in their ankles and problems with their knees and hips. Therefore, in an effort to reduce the chance of this, runners will vary the side of the road that they run on. They are particular about their running surface for a reason! Injuries are not fun!

Runners need always to be aware that vehicles take priority on the roads. However, if drivers and runners respect and understand each other the roads can be safe for all to use!

GENERAL TIPS FOR RUNNERS:

Footwear – Runners put 3-5 times their body weight on their feet. Worn out or improperly fit shoes spell disaster! You will run yourself very quickly into an injury! Cross trainers won't do! Runners need running shoes that are properly fit to their feet. Having the proper support will help in preventing stress fractures, shin splints, and other muscle, joint, tendon and bone injuries. It is worth the investment to purchase proper running shoes.

Clothing - no cotton! Cotton holds onto sweat and causes chaffing. Instead, choose clothing made from technical fibres that will wick moisture away from your skin. Also, technical fibre socks keep your feet drier and help to prevent blisters.

Stretching and Warm-up/Cool-down – these are two different things, but equally important. Taking a few minutes to do a warm-up (easy jog, stationary bike, walk, jump rope) will prepare your muscles so they can work more efficiently and will lower the risk of injury. Cooling down after a run has similar benefits. It is important to do some stretching after both your warm-up and cool-down. Move slowly and gradually into each position and hold for 2 sec before relaxing again. Remember to never stretch a muscle to the point of pain and never stretch cold, tight muscles!

Nutrition Tips – Hydration is important before, during, and after running. It is easier to stay hydrated than to recover from dehydration. Chocolate milk is a great recovery drink after a long run. Those running half and full marathon distances (21.1 to 42.2km) can burn up to a days worth of calories! Athletes need carbohydrates, protein and fat in their diets. Carbohydrates provide quick energy for your muscles and brain. Protein is needed to help the body build and repair muscles and other tissues. Fat provides energy and helps your body absorb fat-soluble vitamins. A snack consisting of a carbohydrate and protein is good for both before a run for extra energy and after a run to help your muscles recover.

RUNNING ROUTES IN THE NEW GERMANY AREA

Runners have the opportunity to run many different routes in our area. This is a blessing as it is great to add variety in order to help with the boredom that comes from running the same route over and over again. The route which circles our community (Route 10, thru the village, over the bridge, School street, over the other bridge, back up to the #10 gives you a mix of hills with a few flat areas and covers about 3.5 kms.). If you want more of a challenge, the hilly Barss Corner Road is a great route to take. Simpson's Corner and Stanley Section also offer a variety with a little less intensity on the hills. Running hills helps to develop endurance and strength. If you are serious into training for an upcoming event, the Osborne hill will give you the greatest challenge! Route #10, either going towards Bridgewater or towards Springfield, offers a route that is great for those long, easy, relaxed runs. Also, consider running the track when you are feeling like having a softer surface to run on. These flatter routes are good for adding distance to your runs.

If you are interested in running a certain distance, it is best to drive from your starting place (usually your driveway) to the half-way point of the distance that you want to cover. This allows you to start from your home and end your run there, ready to grab a drink and jump into the shower! Ahhh!

Running can be an enjoyable and safe activity for all ages and fitness levels. The more serious you become the more knowledge you will need in order to keep yourself injury free and to make the most out of the activity. This article covers only the minimal information first time runners and others might find useful.

Happy Running Folks!

New Germany Legion hosts Call to Remembrance

NG Legion Branch 102 was proud to host the Zone 13 Call to Remembrance competition April 6.

In an impressive finish Liverpool defeated the host New Germany team to capture the Gold Medal. New Germany's team members Matthew Fancey, Alana Mosher, James Eichel and Wesley Eichel, along with alternates Avery Jenkins and Michael LaPointe and Coaches Steven McGill and Michael Wilson were disappointed with the loss after beating the same team in the semi-finals.

"It was a heartbreaker," said John Ryan, who has been the Call to Remembrance coordinator for New Germany Legion branch since 1997. However he was impressed by all the enthusiastic competitors. "The teams all worked very hard. They're an amazing group of kids."

In total, five teams - one from New Germany and two each from Bridgewater and Liverpool - competed to represent Zone 13 at the provincial championships in May. Each team consists of 4 members and at least one alternate from Grades 7, 8 and 9. Teams spend several hours a week practicing for the competition in addition to individual preparation.

"It's impressive and it's encouraging to see youth devote so much time to learning about Canada's military history," said Mr. Ryan, who spent 37 years in the military. "It teaches them about the wars and what their forefathers went through and what created this free country that we have. It is a wonderful program."

The Nova Scotia/Nunavut Command of the Royal Canadian Legion endorsed Call to Remembrance as a provincial program in 1996. Since then, hundreds of Nova Scotia youth have participated in the quiz program on Canadian military history.

NGRHS has entered at least one team every year since the inception of the program in 1996. They have won Gold twice and silver three times in Zone Competition with a best provincial showing of bronze.

The New Germany Legion Branch 102 is grateful for the support of the Ladies Auxiliary & other community organizations who contributed to making this year's event a success including Holland's Carriers & Michelin.

It takes a County to raise a community

The United Way of Lunenburg County believes that we are stronger when we work and pull together. Using a tried, true, tested and respected payroll deduction program, we raise money with the support of the local business community and then reinvest that money into programs and services that will make a meaningful and measurable difference in the lives of Lunenburg County residents. In this new age of government cutbacks, our belief is that we can wait for something to happen or we can make it happen. We choose to make things happen.

Great communities like New Germany and area have been the recipients of United Way of Lunenburg County funding for many years now. The problem is you may not know it.

The United Way has funded such school programs as Buster the Bus School Bus Safety Program and Commercial Toaster for New Germany Rural High School "Grab and Go" Program. We have also funded SSPL's Tale Spinners Early Literacy Program which was offered this past spring at the New Germany Community Centre.

New Germany and Area Food Bank and the North River Community Rink project recently received grants to aid them in their projects.

Many of the United Way of Lunenburg County funded programs that are benefiting the residents of the New Germany area are also benefiting other people throughout Lunenburg County. Some programs are just specific to New Germany. These programs are paid for by the payroll deduction donations of participating employees at over 50 participating Lunenburg County companies.

For additional information about the United Way of Lunenburg County or to launch your own payroll deduction workplace payroll deduction please contact our coordinator Michael Graves at office@lunenburgcounty.unitedway.ca or call 530-3072. ## Public Health Update

It's Tick Season...

Blacklegged ticks (BLT's) are the primary source for cases of human Lyme disease. People may be exposed to BLT's that are often present in long grass or shrubbery. The risk of infection is very low if the tick is removed within 24 hours of attachment. Human cases of Lyme disease rarely cause death.

Helpful hints to decrease the risk of BLT encounters

- Cover skin when walking, working, or playing in areas where ticks are found.
- Wear enclosed shoes, tucking shirt in pants and pant legs in socks
- Walk on well-traveled paths, avoiding high grass and vegetation
- Use an insect repellent (DEET) following label directions carefully
- Check yourself, children and pets after walking in grassy or wooded areas, particularly where BLT's have become common. Check clothing and inspect skin including arm pits, groin and scalp.
- Remove ticks as soon as they are found. Carefully grasp ticks with tweezers as close to the skin as possible and pull the tick straight out. Clean the area where the tick was attached to the skin
- See a health care professional if symptoms of Lyme disease or other tick borne disease develops after exposure to a BLT
- Use simple landscaping techniques to reduce the number of BLT's around homes and parks.

Remember 'Enjoy the Outdoors safely', for more information please visit www.gov.ns.ca/hpp/cdpc/lyme.asp or call your local Public Health Office

Graduation, with about 50 grads, will take place June 28th at the school.

Around the Community

In This Corner Its Me & the Kids

Okay, so when did I become so uncool? I told my oldest child, who is just finishing grade primary, that she only has one more month of school! I was very excited, thinking of the days we'd spend swimming at the lake, picnics and lazy summer afternoons. I tried to ignore the disappointment in her eyes, but was totally crushed when she said "but Mom...what am I gonna do with YOU all summer. I'll be soooo bored!." Ouch! Wasn't it only 10 months ago we were preparing for her first day of school and she looked at me with big brown teary eyes and said "but Mom, I don't want to go to school, I'll have more fun at home with you". Don't get me wrong, I'm thankful she loves school, and I hope it continues for the next 13 years, but I must admit, I'm a little crushed she thinks I'm sooo boring.

So I sat down to think of some summer activities for the kids to do and possibly try to reclaim some "coolness", if in fact I had any to begin with. There are many great and inexpensive things to see and do in our area. Let us not lose sight of the reason we live and work in such a beautiful part of Nova Scotia. Take the time this summer to enjoy this beauty with your family. Don't get caught up in the idea that you need to schedule every moment of your child's time with structured activities.

My fondest summertime memories are the most carefree moments spent swimming at the lake with my friends and riding our bicycles to the Dairy Kone for an ice cream. So before those days of "Mommy, I'm bored", a little pre-planning might help. Sit down with your kids before summer break and help them make a list of fun things they can do without parental help (If you're lucky, they may even list some household chores... toilet scrubbing anyone?) Put each activity on a separate piece of paper in a jar. When they come to you with "I'm bored!." Get out the jar and have them choose two or three papers and have them decide which activity they would like to do.

Try hosting a summer party with a few of their friends. It doesn't take a lot of planning to entertain children outside in the fresh air. Ask them to bring their swim suits and towels as water games are a must. One of my children's favorites is the fill the bucket race. There is also water balloons, sprinklers, wading pools and the old fashioned favorite, a tarp placed on a hill with a squeeze of sunlight soap and the water hose. A homemade slip and slide!

Indian Falls Park

There are many affordable activities you can do right in your own community like spending a Sunday afternoon at Indian Falls with a picnic lunch. We also have beautiful well kept trails to enjoy walking or by ATV, bicycle or horseback.

Make this a summer to remember with your kids, and keep in mind, it's the little moments and time spent together that make the fondest memories.

Have a great Summer everyone!
