Autumn Fading to Winter 2011

As we approach Remembrance Day and the Christmas season the realization hits that another year is coming to a close. We hope that it was a good year for you and that you accomplished some of the things you had always hoped to do, like learn to paint, take piano lessons, walk three times a week (or is that five?) or any other dream. If not, tomorrow is another day and 2012 is another year, so go for it!

All the best for the season.

The Royal Canadian Legion was formed in 1926 with a membership of 50,000. The Legion's commitment to the Remembrance of those who gave their lives for peace and freedom is as valid today as it was then. Today the Legion is one of the largest community service organizations in Canada with more than 360,000 members and approximately 1,500 branches in Canada, the USA and Europe.

As well as service to veterans and the community, the Legion has a strong and continuing commitment in promoting Canada's contribution to world peace, the protection of Canadian sovereignty and the preservation of national unity.

The mission of The Royal Canadian Legion is "to serve veterans and their dependants, to promote Remembrance, and to act in the service of Canada and its communities." In essence, the purposes and objectives of the Legion were born of the need to further the spirit of comradeship and mutual assistance among all who have served and never to forget the deeds of the fallen.

It is paramount that the Legion strives to pass on these goals and traditions to the families and descendants of our ex-service personnel and to raise this awareness among all Canadians.

As the years take their toll on Canada's veteran population, the Legion needs the infusion of new blood in order to maintain the many services provided by The Royal Canadian Legion to communities across Canada. Membership was originally restricted to those who had served in Canada's Armed Forces and Merchant Navy. The Royal Canadian Legion is proud of its military heritage and still maintains close ties with the Armed Forces today; however, over the years, categories of membership have evolved to include other members of the community. Membership categories include Ordinary, Associate and Affiliate. It is open to all Canadian citizens and Commonwealth subjects.

We offer a range of activities including weekly dart leagues; we also have a banquet facility and host a range of events throughout the year that both members and non-members can enjoy.

One program which is significant to the Legion includes advocating with Veterans Affairs Canada to promote the well being of all Veterans, ex-service and serving personnel and their dependents. Other programs that support youth services include Leadership Training Camp, the Call to Remembrance, Poster and Literary contests and Bursaries/Scholarships. The Legion supports many programs that benefit our community. Poppy funds collected are used for assistance to veterans, ex-service members and their families who are in need.

Neighbourhood Kids

We are starting a new feature in the New Germany Connections Newsletter. This is your chance to take a minute or two and meet one of your younger neighbours. We are introducing Dexter Robar of Meisners Section in this issue. Dexter regularly attends Teen Place Youth Nights on Friday evenings and helps to plan and improve our programs at our regular steering committee meetings. Dexter is always willing to give a helping hand, doing so with a smile. Here is what Dexter has to say about himself.

Hi, my name is Dexter. I am 14 years of age soon to be 15(Nov 28). I attend New Germany Rural High School and am in grade 9. I am active in New Germany Teen Place and am into my 3rd year of army cadets. Throughout the summer months I also join the local softball league. I can always find lots of ways to keep busy. I like hunting and fishing, working out, and working on my truck. I have a Ford F-150 that I hope to have built into my rally truck for when I turn 16. Teen Place is a very good environment for me to hang out with friends, whether it be chilling out or playing some activities, it's a very friendly place. They also have some very good workers there that I would be very comfortable talking to if I needed help. My future plans include either entering into the army, or hopefully owning and operating out of my own garage. My favorite saying is "holy fish sticks"!

Thanks for taking the time to get to know me, and a special thanks for featuring me in "Neighbourhood Kids".

- Dexter

Hope you enjoyed meeting Dexter. Watch for him marching with his army cadets and our veterans in the Remembrance Day parade.

Elementary News

New Germany Elementary School is a great school. It is also my school. There are grades primary to six. In NGES there are nine classes, five full classes and four split classes. There is also music, phys. ed. and French.

Students in grade four, five, and six can enjoy sports such as soccer, basketball, and cross country running. This year so far we have one team, a girls soccer team with 15 players from grades four to six. This year students will be able to join an after school drama club.

On September 22nd NGES walked around New Germany to raise money for cancer by participating in the Terry Fox run. Everybody in the school came. This was NGES 31st year participating in the Terry Fox run.

Again this year the grade four class will be doing Green Team. Green Team is when students go to each class during their lunch time, collect all of the juice boxes, wash them out and recycle them. I think Green Team is a good idea to help the environment.

My name is Cassie Burroughs. I am a grade six student at NGES. I will be reporting to you the news from NGES.

MARC North

On September 20th, 2011 the Municipality of the District of Lunenburg officially announced the acquisition of approximately 115 acres of property in the northern part of the Municipality, in the community of New Germany, for future park development.

In 2002 the Municipality consulted with communities in the District about what open spaces people would like to see remain in the public and what open space should the Municipality look into acquiring to become part of the public parks and open spaces in the Municipality. Residents identified a need for a park similar to the Municipal Activity Recreation Complex (MARC) located in Dayspring. The concept of "MARC North" was born. For the past nine years Council and staff have been looking for a suitable location to help address this expressed need by residents. We believe this recently acquired property is the first step in turning the need into a park for all to enjoy!

MODL was asked to address what features will be included in the development of "MARC North". It is difficult to answer this question as it will be the community that helps decide what "MARC North" will become. When the community consultations were conducted features such as areas suitable for hiking and picnicking, trails, coasting, outdoor skating and skiing were identified. It will be up to residents to help decide if these will indeed be features in the park.

The first step of acquiring the land is now completed. The second step is for a group in the community to take a leadership role, and work with residents and the Municipality to start developing a concept plan for the park. Once the concept is down on paper the next steps are to secure funds and begin designing and building the features. Once the park is completed everyone can celebrate and enjoy! To help ensure the park remains in good shape commitment from the community will be required to operate and maintain it.

The future of "MARC North" is up to our communities. Are you interested in working on developing and building this park which will be an asset in your community? Are you part of a group who may want to take on that leadership role? If you answered yes, please contact Trudy Payne, Director of Recreation Services at 541-1333 or at tpayne@mold.ca. To quote Henry Ford "Coming together is a beginning; keeping together is progress; working together is success."

In This Corner Its Me & the Kids

Here's a fun twist on playdough making it perfect for some Christmas "cooking" and modeling fun. Home-made playdough stores well in Ziploc bags in the fridge (press out all the air when you seal them up), and if you leave it out it will harden eventually - but if you want to keep your creations you should paint them with an acrylic varnish to protect them.

And it makes a great "gift mix" too - you can even make tags so that you can package some up for your friends and family, or any children coming to visit over the holidays.

You will need:

- 1 cup plain (all-purpose) flour
- ½ cup salt
- 2 tablespoons cream of tartar
- 2 tablespoons vegetable oil
- 1 cup water with food coloring added
- Glitter

Instructions:

Put all the ingredients into a large saucepan, and stir over a medium heat until the dough forms into a ball. Allow to cool, and then knead until smooth.

Store in an airtight container (such as a Ziploc bag with the air pressed out).

To make glittery playdough as a gift:

First colour the salt with a little food colouring and leave to dry (this is quicker if you spread it out on a baking sheet and stir occasionally). Make sure it dries out completely.

Mix the dry ingredients and put into a Ziploc bag with a label explaining how to make up the playdough
